Kiwanis International is concerned about their communities and the world. We of the Freeport Lincoln-Douglas Kiwanis Club want to reward High School senior(s) who are actively involved in service to our community. Our scholarships, of up to $1,000.00 per scholarship, can be applied toward any post-secondary educational expenses. The scholarships are based on academic achievement, community service and financial needs. Keep in mind that the Youth Services Scholarship Committee will be looking for applicants that demonstrated leadership skills, a willingness to serve and community involvement through out their high school careers and are planning to continue in this manner in the future.

To apply, please answer the questions below and return this form, one reference letter as listed in question #6 and your high school transcript to:

Beth Bastian, 1156 W. Pleasant St., Freeport, IL 61032 by March 8, 2025. All scholarships must be postmarked by March 8, 2025. NO hand delivered scholarships, please. The scholarship recipient(s) will be notified in May 2025.

Please, use the form provided and keep attachments to a minimum.

*Note: Please do not use names or references to the high school you attend on the application form.

*All information you provide on this application will be kept confidential.

The Freeport Lincoln-Douglas Kiwanis Club would like to thank all applicants for applying.
Best wishes with your educational pursuits.
